

Clovis Dorman Cochran

March 17, 1940 - October 27, 2014

Clovis Dorman Cochran, of Brady passed away on Monday, October 27th, 2014, at the age of 74, in Brady, TX.

Clovis was born on March 17th, 1940 in Sebastian, TX to William Emmitt and Goldie Pearl Cochran.

Clovis was a proud soldier in the United States Army. In 1960 he moved to McCulloch County where he spent most of his adult life. He was a man of faith and a member of the Christian Community Church in Brady. Most knew Clovis from the many years of working with the public. He had a smile that was contagious and he could make anyone's day brighter by just being himself. Clovis never met a stranger, in fact he considered everyone his friend. He was a wonderful and loving brother, uncle, and friend. His cheerful personality and beautiful smile will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Clovis is preceded in death by his parents; William Emmitt and Goldie Pearl Cochran; and his brother, Coy Cochran

He is survived by his sisters; Gwen Brandt of Aqua Dulce, TX., and Alice Brown and husband Kenneth of Brady, TX.; Sister in law, Dorothy Cochran of Ballinger, TX.; Four nephews; Roy Brandt, Steven Cochran, Willie Brandt, and Randy Brown; Six nieces; Darlett Valadez, Cheryl Calvez, Valarie Carlisle, Robin Klaras, Shelly Lerch and Kenda Harkrider; numerous great nieces and nephews; and one "adopted" son; Kenny Askew.

Comments

---

“ I am truly blessed to call Clovis my friend. He had a wonderful smile and a big heart. I am so sorry for your loss. May God bless you all!

Shirley Lively Poynor - October 28, 2014 at 10:42 PM

---

“ I am truly blessed to call Clovis my friend. He had a wonderful smile and a big heart. I am so sorry for your loss. May God bless you all!

Shirley Lively Poynor - October 28, 2014 at 10:41 PM