

Curt Evans Stockton

April 28, 1939 - February 18, 2014

Curt Evans Stockton, 74, of Menard went to be with the Lord on February 18. He was born in Fort McKavett on April 28, 1939. Enduring physical hardship, Curt lived a full life enjoying his church and singing in the choir. On Tuesday nights, you could always find Curt in the front row at the VFW Bingo hall waiting to win. And everyone knew if they played dominoes with him, they were probably going to lose.

Curt loved football, and was a devoted Menard Yellowjacket fan. You could often see him on his 3-wheel bicycle around town or on the highways collecting cans. And in later years you could often see him plugged into someone electric outlet.

He was a hard worker. Curt was well known for his mischievous sense of humor and he loved the family gathering.

He is preceded in death by his dad, Curtis Stockton, Sr., mother Mary Evans Shearer, and brother Ronald Travis Shearer.

Curt is survived by his brother, Curtis Stockton and wife Jeanne of Houston, sister Mary Shearer Eckert and husband Dewey of Mason, brother Joe Shearer of Fredericksburg, brother Wylie Shearer and wife Brenda of Ingram, sister Maggie Lew Stockton Middleton of Eldorado, and many nephews, nieces, and friends.

Graveside services were at Ft. McKavett cemetery Saturday, February 22. Pallbearers were Curt's nephews, Trey Stockton, Shy Lowe Middleton, Lonnie Middleton, Robert Quiton McKinney, Travis Zane McKinney, Jeremy Shearer, and Bill Moore.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the First Baptist Church, 300 Tipton St, Menard, TX 76859 or favorite charities.

Comments

“ Our thoughts and prayers going out to the Shearer family. May your memories of Curt be a part of your lives always~

Barb & Terry Mallory - February 20, 2014 at 11:27 AM

“ You will be so missed by Keith and me. RIP Curt.

Marilyn Wheless - February 19, 2014 at 09:08 PM