

Helen Mack Langseth

March 8, 1939 - March 29, 2014

Helen Mack (Smith) Langseth, 75, of Brady, Texas passed away on Saturday, March 29, 2014, in Brady. Visitation will be held on Wednesday, April 2, 2014, from 5 - 7 p.m. at Heritage Funeral Home in Brady. A private family service will be scheduled at a later date.

Helen was born in Brady on March 8, 1939, to Bill Smith and Billie Mae (Spiller) Smith. She was a lifelong resident of McCulloch County and a member of the First Christian Church.

Helen was a nurse of over 30 years, spending her lifetime taking care of others and was a fixture at our local hospital. She was dedicated to, and loved, her job. One would be hard-pressed to find a long-time local resident who didn't know her as a nurse at the hospital.

In addition to caring for people, Helen loved cats and was known to take in and care for many strays over the years. She was also an avid reader with a passion for books about the military, especially World War II.

Helen was preceded in death by her parents and one sister, Lynda Cowan.

She is survived by; two sons, Mark Langseth, and wife Julie, of LaVernia, Texas and Mack Langseth, and wife Karen, of Brady; seven grandchildren; Ashleigh Ridings, and husband John, of Austin; Heather Ross of Austin; Rebecca Thompson, and husband Nick, of San Antonio; Marcus Langseth of LaVernia; Robbie Riggs, and wife Diana, of Brady; Tommy Langseth, and wife Kayla, of San Angelo; and Jon Langseth, and wife Betheny, of Brady; four great-grandchildren; Emily and J.R. Ridings and October and Ashton Riggs; three sisters; Susanne Miller, and husband Dan, of Katy; Nan Crouch, and husband Billy, of Brady; and Jan Wigginton of Brady; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial are requested to Hospice of San Angelo or the F.M."Buck" Richards Memorial Library in Brady.
