“ To Lori and her family. I did not have the pleasure of meeting your father/brother, but everything he was and everything he stood for lives on his children to his grandchildren. I see him in my dear friend Lori. Having lost my father just a few months ago, I know the bittersweet time this is for all of you. I am comforted knowing he's with his heavenly father and I also know I look forward to meeting him there. I pray for peace and comfort for all of you. Phyllis, Christoval, TX

“ My heartfelt condolences on the loss of your wonderful father. Some of my best childhood memories included staying with Lori and being a part of J.L. and Anna's "family". He was a remarkable man with an amazing heart. I hope you find peace and comfort in the many memories you hold of him in your heart.

Prayers and lots of love,
