

Lila Mae Baron

March 26, 1935 - March 11, 2015

Lila Baron 79 of Menard passed away on March 11, 2015, in San Angelo, Texas.

A Memorial service to celebrate her life will be held at a later date.

Lila was born March 26, 1935 in Menard to Roy and Margaret Evelyn (Bradford) Benson. She is preceded in death by her parents and her husband Robert (Bob) Baron.

Lila graduated from Menard High School and attended the University of Texas in Austin and was a member of the First Baptist church in Menard.

She retired from the United States Department of Agriculture in 1977. She had served as Executive Director of the Farm Service Agency of the USDA in Bexar, Tarrant, Menard, Maverick, Val Verde and Kenny Counties. After she retired she owned Second Hand Trading Company in Menard and worked part-time at the store with her son.

Survivors include a son Mark Aycock and wife Sherleen of Menard, a step-daughter Susan (Baron) Houston and husband Ray of Oklahoma City, Olivia Swan and husband Billy of Burleson, Texas, grandchildren; Kaci Wash and husband Brodie, Kari Buchala and husband Jeremy, and Megan Ortega and husband Lonnie, Sam and wife Stephanie and Baron Farha, Stacy Thompson and husband Paul, Sherrie McCaskill and husband Pete, great grandchildren; Brennan and Autumn Wash, and Dee Ortega, Kathryn Hebert, Emma Sky Baron, Macy and Gage Farha, Channing, Mollie, and Trey Thompson, Adam Stephens. Sisters: Helen Landers and husband Jake, Ramona Cooke and Mildred Yates. Numerous nieces and nephews, and cousins.