“ Aunt Wanda was always so special to me... as a child I spent a lot of time with her. I would always look forward to spending a couple weeks of my summer vacation with her. She would take me to the Salon with her and I would always wash and fold towels and do whatever she would let me do to help. I wanted to be just like her!!💕. Another fond memory was when a bunch of us “brown girls“ would get together and playing spoons... that could get intense and dangerous ... Aunt Wanda would take you out over a spoon!! LOL.
You will be missed by so many.. I'm so glad I have some treasured memories to hold on to for my lifetime. 💕

“ Wanda was so kind to me during our decades of friendship. When my husband was so ill before his passing and I was his caregiver and still working I would be so tired from not getting any sleep. She would let me come over in the afternoon and sleep on her sofa for a few hours, just to get my strength back. She was such a blessing. She'd put on gentle music, close the drapes and tip toe back to her work. She was beautiful inside and outside.
